The registration costs include 2 lunches, the Project tour and the computer lab. And, of course, the hats. Howard has ordered 144 hats; 22 orange and black, 22 with a reflective stripe, 25 maroon, 25 navy, 25 khaki, 25 khaki & black. The hats will average around $9.80 apiece with the logo having the alligator and NWPMA on them.

The general participant registration and vendor registrations will go out today by email and the vendor registrations will be mailed the following day.

The Secy/Treas will keep Matt informed of the vendors who register and he will send them thank you's for attending.

Eric and Matt will verify how long each presenter will need and add this information to the agenda which will be emailed shortly.
